

The Enrico Charles Literary Award

To honour the memory of Enrico Charles, this competition aims to promote a positive understanding and awareness of all physical disabilities suffered in our society. According to WHO statistics, six million people suffer disabilities worldwide.

Competitors are invited to submit no more than 1000 words, either fact or fiction, that describe how they or a member of their family or friend overcame their disability and made a success of their life. Your entry should help to improve the knowledge of those who may be unaware of issues faced by people with a disability as well as offering information and support to patients, their families and healthcare practitioners.

Deadline 4 June, 2010

1st prize £400

2nd prize £150

3rd prize £150.
